

CECILE, A CAPTIVATING VOICE

Since 2004 the voice of Cecile, born in Paris, is particularly appreciated for the implementation of audio guides or documentaries, due to her warm and deep timbre. 20 years of experience as a singer allow her to modulate easily and efficiently between ambient and commercial voices for advertising and her acting talents permit her to embody a 30-year-old woman as well as a senior when it is requested for image films or e-learnings.

5 years of studies at Art School (Nancy, France) provided her with a solid general cultural background which is particularly appreciated for audio-guides for cultural projects or sightseeing and especially museums in Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, Italy as well as in Israel have chosen Cecile's voice because it arouses the curiosity of the visitors. Among others, renown brands like Sennheiser, Bosch, Siemens, Merck, Audi, Spotify, Durex, Vitakraft, Lufthansa, BMW or Volkswagen have shared their confidence in her.
